Rabsy TN

Dear Rabsy,

This year is all most over - Im so glad we got our yearbooks already. A.S.B. even though I wasn't in it too long. was fun. We'll be Seniors Rabsy! YES! That'll be fun cause we can go off campus and scarf at lunchtime.

We've been friends for a long time and Im glad. Please always know that you can come to me if you need to talk or are feeling down! You're the sweetest, most caring person I know!

P.S
I can't wait to see how gorgeous you'll look when you're braces come off!!! C&L.

Dear Rabsy. How ya doing? Well, I'm doing fine right now. I'm waiting for a fucking Spanish test. I've real bad cat bugging you. You're a really really sweet person. Sorry for being such a pest. But I have to live up to my reputation. Have a really great summer. And stay out of trouble. God bless and keep you.

Love ya lots
Tearnest

FACES

Dear Rabsy,

Well this year's gone by pretty fast and its been alot of fun. But it wouldn't have if I hadn't had a friend like you! Im really glad I got to know ya, your alot of fun to be around. Thanks for always listening to me when I plague you with all my boring problems, I just hope Im as willing (& understanding) to listen to yours! This years been pretty fun, Im glad I came down, although I know theres been some bad times here and there. Its been an overall great year. I hope you had a good year Rabsy. Always remember the time we went off campus for about 3 periods and pigged out at Del Taco! That was so fun, we should do it again some time. Also remember what my grandma went into the "car wash"! That was Soo embarrassing!! Oh and also when you, Debbie and I saw "My Tutor"! You thought that was pretty funny! You were laughing so hard & long at that one part I was beginning to get worried!

Hey we're going to have to go to the Beach sometime before I leave! And also go to Ed Torrito's instead of Del Taco for a change!

Well Rabsy Im sorry about some of the things that have happened to you this year, just be glad their done & over with & look on the optimistic side of things. Just think it'll be summer before long, then well be SENIORS & then were off to College - which I know your looking forward to! You're going to have tons of boy-friends in college I'm sure

Love & prayers always Heidi

FACES

A face is a window through which joy, sorrow, laughter, or bitter disappointment can be seen. A mime is a master of faces. Emotion, expression, and gesture are his only means of communication.

The language of faces is universal. A mime speaks with his face. Each expression whether a smile, a wink, or a grimace of pain or anger, has significant meaning.

What our faces reveal depends on what we really are inside. Each of us is unique, special. A mime communicates the distinct expressions of diverse individuals through a universal medium — his face.

FRIENDS

No one stands alone. We are all a part of each other. Although sometimes we may try to hide behind facades of indifference, we share each other's lives and experiences together. It is this interaction that makes us greater than just a group of separate individuals thrown together by fate. Without sharing, we would be faceless.

Sharing creates friends, and we all need friends. They keep us from being sad, getting lost, staying alone. The friends we have help determine who we are. They form part of the emotion in our face, our demonstration of individuality.

SCHOOL

Everything changes. The face of the school is no exception. It is growing, changing, developing. New people come, old ones go, classes are dropped and added; even the campus undergoes transformation. We now have a new track and field, new computers, as well as new chapel seats. Nothing stays the same. Change is everywhere.

Despite the differences between us, we are one. The diverse collection of people here are not together out of sheer coincidence. There is a purpose behind our presence in this place. A thirst for knowledge, understanding, and spiritual growth in a Christian environment is what brings us to Orangewood Academy.

DEDICATION

On our campus there are many faces we love and cherish, but there is one that we hold with special esteem—a face that laughs easily, yet can become serious when the need arises.

A teacher, an athlete, a musician, this man of many talents is always willing to share. He involves himself not only with us as students but in our personal lives as well. His genuine love for Christ shines through his face.

Mr. Lloyd Wong, we dedicate this 1983 Golden Horizon to you for your love, friendship, and unfailing commitment to the students of Orangewood Academy.

1) Sharing through music. 2) A man of many faces. 3) Ready to bump the ball.

TRADITION UPHELD

- I think we did a good job of upholding it.... don't you agree? But we made it into a DYNO-RAD EVENT - Bush

With cheers and applause, dripping students ran for the buses, ending beach day.

This hardly came as a surprise to most. A cold, rainy beach day had now almost come to be expected as we packed up the buses to make our annual trip. As always, we made the best of it, and turned it into a memorable day for all of us.

The grey morning started off with its relay and tug-of-war competition between classes. Each match gave student (and sponsors) a chance to show their true class spirit.

But along with the excitement of the day came the rain, and the gym was soon full of damp students and faculty.

Our rainy-weather friends from A.S.B. planned a trip to Chuck E. Cheese's. Each person received money from pizza and tokens to play favorite games such as Ms. Pac-Man, Donkey Kong, and Tempest, ending the day with tired smiles from everyone.

Dear Babsy,
oops?
I hope you don't mind me writing in your annual. Do you remember this night? I was so embarassed doing that stupid dance but I really had a good time with you that night. I'm sorry things didn't work out with either me or Jon. I don't think I have been treating you very nicely these past few weeks and I'm sorry. Please forgive me.

ISLAND EVENING

A kiss and beautiful lei from Hawaii greeted guests as the luau commenced on a cool evening at the Crawford home.

While everyone enjoyed the Hawaiian meal prepared by Mrs. Anna Wong, the music and entertainment began. The audience was dazzled by sword and fire dancers. Island women also performed graceful dances, selecting a few members from the crowd to do their own version of the traditional hula.

After the music faded, students and faculty enjoyed each other's company and the fresh pineapple from Hawaii. Everyone content, the evening slowly came to a close.

COSTUME PARTY

Dark, confined passages which twisted into dead ends greeted Spartans brave enough to enter the maze leading into the gym. This novel entrance, devised for the A.S.B. Costume Party, provided thrills and chills for many before they reached the end.

Once into the gym costumed guests were treated to an assortment of games and a scavenger hunt.

Submarine sandwiches, popcorn balls, caramel apples, and punch were served in the weight room. Strobe lighting made eating a challenging, if somewhat hazardous, task.

After devouring the scrumptious goodies, everyone proceeded back into the gym for the three-legged race, piggy-back race, and the game of rip-off.

Tired, but satisfied, cowboys, clowns, rabbits, leopards, the Statue of Liberty, a monk, a baby, a cat, a carrot, a strawberry, and other costumed students called it a night as three hundred and fifty balloons bearing farewell messages emerged from the maze.

Ralosy,
I hope this year was fun for you.

DISASTER

A state of emergency was declared on November 9, 1982. The halls were patrolled by authorities who, in no uncertain terms, instructed anyone not on official business to get to the nearest classroom. Police officers kept traffic off the street. Power lines were down and debris littered the campus. Disaster had struck!

It had been raining all day. This came as no surprise; California winters often make their presence felt this way. What no one knew was that an arctic storm was being driven straight towards Orange County. Six tornadoes were sighted as the storm left a forty-foot swath of destruction it its wake.

Hardest hit was Garden Grove, specifically our street. The Chemistry room had a good portion of its roof ripped off and a window was sucked out of the yearbook house, soaking layout sheets, pictures, and copy. Trees and power poles were uprooted. Several students were directed by Mr. Muderspach, Mr. Hyde, and Mr. Oswald in cleaning up the wreckage strewn everywhere. Despite the property damage, power loss, and anxiety, no serious injuries were reported. Thank the Lord for His protection.

THE BRIDGE

(I'm glad I had nothing to do with it) Bush

Elder Keith Knoche, pastor of the Garden Grove Church, was the speaker for the Fall Spiritual Emphasis Week. He presented Christ as the "Bridge" that spans the gap from God to man. He explained that by accepting Christ and following Him man can get on the bridge and stay on it.

Pastor Knoche talked about those who jump off the bridge, thus committing "spiritual suicide" and "gap jumpers" who attempt to reach God without using the Bridge. Pastor Knoche likened the latter method to attempting a running broad jump across the Pacific.

The question "Are you a signpost or a billboard?" was put to students and they were asked to think about whether they were pointing others to Christ or merely being a distraction.

Pastor Knoche's style reflected the simplicity of the Gospel message. A talented musician, he shared musical parables each day. The most thought provoking song was "The Ultimate Show," a story about a theater audience that burns to death because they think the fire is just part of the play. Knoche's style, musical ability, and closeness to his audience made him a very effective and enjoyable speaker.

SPIRIT WEEK

The BEST YET – Be PROUD

For a few days in October our campus underwent a very strange transformation. With its wide range of activities, 1st Semester A.S.B. Spirit Week was intended to raise the morale of the student body. Spartans blew off steam in an organized, but creative way, and the purpose of Spirit Week was achieved. Those who participated had higher spirits, not just for the five short days of rowdiness, but in the weeks that followed as well.

Monday was "Bum and Tacky" day. Students were given a chance to sport the tackiest attire in their wardrobes. It was amazing to see so many people, even some faculty, trade fashion for the tacky look.

Spartans created an incredible mix of the mundane and the bizarre on "Hat, Shades, and Socks" day. A pith helmet, granny glasses, polo shirt, designer jeans, argyle socks, and topsiders completed some of the unusual combinations. Who could have known that we were all so imaginative?

On Wednesday, the activities changed from a normal state of enthusiasm to a fevered pitch of rowdiness. Assembly period was set aside for class competitions in the gym including a banana-eating contest, a life saver relay, and a special birthday trick played on Mr. Dale Hyde. Everyone then went outside for a water relay. A barrel riddled with holes is difficult to fill even with forty to sixty students working together! Due to high spirits and the difficulty of the event itself, the contest turned into a battle. Drenched by combatants armed with buckets, trash barrels, and a hose, the freshmen and sophomores soon gave up the lead.

Student Government Day provided a welcome change of pace as students taught classes while A.S.B. officers took over administrative positions. Friday's formal theme brought Spirit Week to a successful end.

DEATH VALLEY DAYS

Despite the title "Death Valley Days," the Home and School Fair was a lively gathering. As well as being a major fund-raiser, the fair annually provides a singular opportunity for parents, teachers, students, and friends together in a relaxed atmosphere.

While savoring the western atmosphere and the food provided by each class, fair-goers were treated to an auction and a spelling bee.

Entertainment included the usual "ring-toss" type games and an assortment of popular arcade games, a stage coach ride, and pony rides. The drug education booth provided a novel addition to the event, while the "Calico Corner" provided gifts for friends and loved ones.

The traditional door prize raffle concluded a well-rounded day of informal fun.

THANKSGIVING FEAST

This was HOT
We set standards!

A.S.B. couldn't miss with the '82 Thanksgiving Feast held in the Fellowship Hall at the Garden Grove Church. A.S.B. officers dressed as pilgrims served Thanksgiving food buffet style.

The meal prepared by the officers and the Gallermores included crepes stuffed with cheese, broccoli, and spinach. The dinner ended with the traditional pumpkin pie and whipped cream.

The folk tunes of John Denver via the public address system formed a good background for the festvities.

When the feast drew to a close, we were all thankful for the time spent together with classmates and for the delicious dinner.

HOLIDAY DINNER

This was classy - although I wish we had more "ACTION" BUT that is my opinion!

Apparelled in white tuxedoes and beautiful dresses, the handsome couples arrived at the Newport Sheraton in chauffeured limousines. The aura of elegance, in addition to the Yuletide piano music provided by Greg Bietz, made the setting perfect for the Christmas Banquet.

Dinner was a choice of stuffed chicken or vegetable plate. Salad and croissant rolls preceded the main course, and an ice cream dessert followed the meal.

An appearance by Santa Claus and a plate-laden tray dropped by a waiter added to the excitement of the evening. After pictures were taken in front of the Christmas tree, the couples left the party as they had arrived — with a touch of class.

VALENTINE BANQUET

I'm not responsible for these pics - talk to Carlos. I wasn't there - but I heard a lot of positive!

Orangewood Academy was out on the town in style the evening of February 17. The occasion? Its annual Valentine's Banquet, held at the Harlequin Dinner Playhouse.

The evening began with dinner, which boasted a choice of not one, but two different types of buffets: hot and cold. Then the entertainment aspect of the evening took over as Harlequin proudly presented "Meet me in St. Louis," a musical about a family's ups and downs while living in St. Louis at the turn of the century. As the play ended and the actors took their curtain calls, this memorable evening came to a close.

BACKPACKING CLUB

Learning about God and nature is the Backpacking Club's primary purpose. The sponsor, Miss Shirley Parker, emphasizes that the members learn to observe and understand how nature works together. Backpackers find the trips a chance to get away from school, enjoy nature, and get closer to God through the great outdoors. Members also find this a good way to exercise and enjoy each others' company, and just have a really good time. The club set its goal at two trips per quarter to such places as San Gorgonio, Death Valley, and the High Sierras.

OLVERA STREET ESCAPE

The long awaited Spanish trip finally arrived! Having been cancelled twice, the trip seemed all the more exciting to Mrs. Esther Berthelsen's Spanish Club students — The Taco's.

Tuesday, November 30, at 8:45 am, the chilly air did not bother the eager Taco's as they boarded the buses. The ride lasted about 45 minutes. Upon arrival, the Tacos were dismissed for the day on Olvera Street. Authentic-looking shops filled with traditional food made tasting a treat. Many souveniers, such as hats, pennies, and banks were bought to be treasured and remembered. At one o'clock Taco's set off to see the famed Dancing Stallions. The graceful stallions danced to perfection as they performed before the large audience. The students saw how they were trained and learned about their Spanish backgrounds. CONCERT BAND

Band exploded into the public eye at the Christmas program, on December 16.

Performing on the same bill with choir and handbells, the band put on a magnificent show.

Although this was their primary public performance, the band was far from idle the rest of the year. Prior to the Christmas show, the band played at the Orange Grove Rehabilitation Center, as well as for an A.S.B. election "speech." Under the leadership of the new director, Ms. Wendy Gearing, the band has had a busy year. Included in their schedule were such activities as caroling and touring.

All in all, a good year for the talented musicians of the band.

CHOIR "85" forever

Touring was much a part of choir, under the directorship of James Woods. Even prior to the awe-inspiring spectacle of the combined Academy and Elementary choirs at the Christmas Concert, the Orangewood Singers had visited several churches.

After the New Year, the pace quickened for the Orangewood Singers. The main thrust of their Spring concerts and tours was a multiple song presentation concerning the events of Easter weekend. The choir's presentation of this musical event, narrated by Bruce Eng, was much in demand. For reminding us in a very special way of our ultimate gift from God, we owe them a debt of thanks.

SENTINEL

Informing, entertaining, and encouraging student unity were the aims of the Sentinel under the unwavering, yet subtle leadership of Dave DeLay. As Editor, Dave brought the varied talents of his staff members together to achieve the paper's goals.

Students, whether as a whole or individually, were not overlooked by the Sentinel as it sought to recognize student achievements and support activities. This, along with the analysis of relevant issues, penetrating editorials, original art and graphics, and a keen perception for the lighter side of things combined to make the Sentinel an excellent high school publication.

FIRST WE ARE #1 SEMESTER ASB

Faced with the task of satisfying the needs and interests of the student body, A.S.B. President, Jeff Ho, and his staff met with success. The Luau, Costume party, Thanksgiving dinner, and Christmas Banquet were just a few of the events highlighting the semester.

Their greatest contribution was the variety of foods offered in the soup room. The students improved the quality of food offered and began to earn money to defray the expenses and lower student prices for parties and banquets.

This was the scene of immense action that flooded the courts of the Gymnasium to start off the Intermural Sports program.

High C, led by Richard Wales, took the early lead in the competition winning twenty-two out of their thirty-three games.

Volleyball provided excellent entertainment and exercise for active Spartans and according to Coach Lloyd Wong, "This was the best quality volleyball played here in several years."

WOMENS VOLLEYBALL

For nine weeks, every Wednesday after school an enthusiastic group of forty girls met in the Gymnasium. What were they there for? To have a great time together playing volleyball. Coached by Miss Sandi Adams, the girls put together their teams with hard work, practice, and most of all, patience.

The volleyball season was really impressive due to a great deal of confidence and enthusiasm from everyone.

ACTION!

Basketball intramurals underwent significant changes. This was partially due to an considerable increase in team membership.

Longer quarters with more frequent substitutions, as well as the addition of a three-point line made the games more exciting for both players and spectators.

WOMENS FIELD HOCKEY

Remember this Shot - Ain't you glad you did

Girls wearing red and blue pennies, shin guards, and carrying hockey sticks came running across the new field — girl's field hockey season had begun! The three courageous teams met Thursday afternoons for two months. The players scored as many points as possible. The games were exciting with forwards rushing ahead, fullbacks carefully guarding the goal box, halfbacks putting out full effort and concentration. Each goalie went beyond their limits to protect their respective goals. The girls all showed a good attitude, whatever the outcome of the game, and everyone worked together.

As the audience awaited their entrance, the Class of 1984 lined up outside the auditorium. Finally, the moment of truth arrived and the Juniors made their appearance — resplendent in their captivating red, blue, and grey outfits. Thus began the Junior Presentation, January 5, 1983.

During the program, speaker Paul Jensen amplified the class aim "On to heights ahead," and motto, "The higher we rise, the broader our view," showing that this class is looking ahead.

The class emblem, a white horse jumping over a large "84", symbolizes strength, speed, purity, and singleness of purpose, and shows that their sights are set high.

Judy Eng and Sherry Howell sang the class song, "Up Where We Belong", accompanied by Susan Oh. A special slide show gave everyone a chance to learn about each individual's goals for the future.

New Field — New Perspective

The Orangewood Football League took on a new perspective. Being played in March instead of September, Spartans enjoyed the spring weather for their intramural games. The addition of twenty freshman allowed the league to expand to six teams instead of the previous four. The action was intense as rookie players challenged veterans. Coaches, being allowed to play in regular games, tried their skills with students enjoying the competitive games.

UNIVERSITY OF HEAVEN

Another chapter in the history of Orangewood Academy is recorded in this beautiful yearbook. In the days ahead it will bring back fond memories. As you leaf through its pages and view the many interesting and familiar faces you will relive the 1982-83 school year.

You were an exceptional student body, so cooperative, mature, and inspiring. You experienced spiritual growth during the year and developed a closer relationship with Jesus Christ.

Some of you, by virtue of graduation or other personal interests, will be tempted to cease your schooling, while others will be deciding where to attend school next year. Regardless of your plans, I sincerely hope you will plan to be part of the student body of the school of the hereafter.

It is my earnest desire that you will choose to enroll in the heavenly school from which you will never graduate. Now is the time to make the final preparations for entering that school.

Continue to allow God to control your life and determine with His help to be part of the greatest "space flight" this world has ever known. Then we shall see Him face to face.

It has been a privilege to work with you this year, and I pray that you will plan to enroll with me in the University of Heaven. Sincerely, A.H. Muderspach.

Staff Spotlight

Former accountant from the Sao Paulo Union, South American Division, joins the staff in January, 1980. Mr. Sam DaSilva, in charge of janitorial and grounds, arrived in the United States in the 1950's with a degree in Commercial Business and Accounting from the Sao Paulo College of Brazil. Due to the language barrier, Mr. DaSilva relied on his degree in Confection and Baking to start a catering service. He also worked in the kitchen of the Glendale Adventist Hospital. Later he was in charge of the grounds for the Glendale Adventist Academy. Mr. DaSilva began to add color to our campus. Today pansies, dahlias, and roses are just a few of the flowers he has planted to make our campus look more beautiful.

BUS DRIVERS

A few special people do a singularly difficult job here with little or no recognition from those around them. It takes remarkable patience and character to handle students in an environment which many times brings out the worst in them. To do this while maneuvering through traffic, avoiding hazards, and following a circuitious route requires not only character, but an abundant supply of skill as well. Despite the problems inherent in their job , our bus drivers continue to shuttle us to school and back home again, in any type of weather or traffic conditions. The addition of Robert Peters and Gladys McCaniel has raised the staff to even higher levels of efficiency.

Just two days after their entrance into high school life, the freshmen were treated to a time-honored tradition — Freshman Initiation. The members of the Class of '86 were the guests of honor at the year's first Assembly. Decked out in party hats and bibs, they introduced themselves one by one to the student body. They were then given a short time to go out into the auditorium en masse and each find a Senior. Few were successful in their endeavor.

The following day, the freshmen were granted the "privilege" of eating lunch in the racquetball courts. After their meal they were instructed to find an upperclassman and wipe his or her hands and face with a napkin.

Similar activities continued throughout the next several days. During the entire three days of their "welcome," freshmen were required to wear party hats. Those found guilty of disobeying the "rules" of initiation were threatened with an ice water pit on Beach Day. However, due to foul weather the miscreants were spared the chilling finale to the Freshmen "welcome."

VICTORIOUS FRESHMAN LOOKS AHEAD

When only five years of age, Greg Anderson began water skiing. He skied twelve miles across Lake Shasta without stopping or falling. By age seven he was single skiing.

Greg joined the Lake Arrowhead Ski Club in 1977 and earned third place in the 0-9 Boys Open. In 1981 he finished fourth in the 10-12 Mixed Draw. Greg also completed the fifty mile race at Lake Mead in fifty-two minutes.

In the Lake Arrowhead Ski Club he was in the top ten observers and third place in the four man team relay. At Lake Mead his boat broke down. Locating one at the last minute he began the twenty-five mile race two minutes late and still passed sixty-six boats.

Creative Sophomore wins Scholarships

Greg Fox, a sensitive creative sophomore, won his first art award in December of 1979. At the age of fourteen he was awarded a scholarship to the Laguna Beach School of Art. He excelled in the class in stone sculpture. Again in 1980, he entered the art competition and was awarded a second scholarship. He took the class in etching. This led to the production of a calender for the La Palma Intercommunity Hospital. This project also won a first place scholarship through the "Color it Orange" contest sponsored by the Designing Women of Laguna Beach School of Art. Greg's 1982 summer project was a bronze sculpture. This last summer two of his aquatint art works were displayed during the Brea Fine Art Exhibition co-sponsored By Brea Art Association and Torana Art League in conjunction with the City of Brea. His work was seen in the Laguna Beach Museum of Art.

Greg has studied under accomplished artists such as Don May who first taught him in Anaheim Adult School at age thirteen. Under his training he learned basic art and "life drawing." Currently he is studying under Ed Chatlin of the Laguna Beach School of Art. Mr. Chatlin plans to display some of Greg's work in an upcoming show and has valued one of the articles at $1,500.00.

As a student he has contributed much to the fine arts program and has used his talents to enhance many school projects.

Remember how we all tasted the paste in first grade?

Remember the funny old teacher we had in elementary? And the special one who left? Who could forget the one in junior high who read that note? I cried and cried.

Remember Sixth Grade Camp and Bible Camp?

Remember toilet papering the bathrooms at school and at camp?

Remember how we thought seventh grade was a big deal? Remember being nervous at eighth grade graduation? And walking with that guy you hated?

Remember that first steady boyfriend? And when that special guy FINALLY asked you out?

Remember chasing the boys in third grade? Then there was that cute P.E. coach that every fourth grade girl had a crush on.

Remember how your parents always embarrassed you? How they told EVERYONE every "neat" or "bad" thing you did? Remember the ugly pictures they took of you and insisted on showing to everyone who walked through the front door?

Remember cooties? And the "anticootie spray can" each of us had?

Remember wearing Mickey Mouse hats during Freshman Initiation? Remember Spirit Week? And Beach Day when it rained? And gross school pictures?

Remember Week of Prayer? And announcements in Chapel? And all those classes? And friends?

So many memories for a sophomore to look back on. Now only two more years until graduation. How many more memories will there be then?

Dear Raspy,
THIS year has been really something for you hasn't it? theres no way I could put up with everything youve had to this year. Then again I'm not you. (lucky me) I have had fun this year in my many classes. You shouldve gotten more classes with me so I could bug you more. Im just glad you haveht been able to put dodgers all over my stuff. They suck without Steve Garvey and Ron Cey! just be sure you dont put Dodgers all over my year book. I think youve calmed down alot more since the beginning of the year. Congradulations. I like you better calmed down! Love, Trent

SKATING CHAMP BEATS ODDS

Challenges are a way of life for Christine Crawford. She has had to battle life itself since she was two years old. At an early age she was stricken with non-bacterial meningitis. She spent forty days on the critical list at the Childrens Hospital of Orange County. The disease infected a kidney so badly it was declared non-functional by medical authorities.

Chrissie's remaining kidney had also been diseased by the meningitis infection and was thought to be only forty per cent functional. A serious heart condition made surgery impossible. Doctors recommended severe medication which has to be changed approximately every six months.

When Chrissie was nine years old, her doctor recommended some form of exercise. Chrissie and her sister, Lisa, turned to roller skating. Chrissie stuck with the sport and has won sixty trophies and medals, the latest being the United States Sophomore Ladies Championship at Bakersfield. It was the event qualifying her for the nationals.

"Skating has been important to me, but I can't think of anything more important to me than my family," she said. "Everything I've been successful in accomplishing is due to the dedication of my mother, father, and Lisa. If anyone deserves recognition, it's gotta be them. My mother will give me a second life in the near future because she is giving me one of her kidneys when the transplant becomes necessary. The best I can give my parents is my sincere hard work, respect and dedication."

Chrissie is also looking past the competitive days, saying, "When all this is behind me and I've graduated from high school, I plan to further my education by becoming a laboratory technician. I've been the object of so many blood tests, I want to be a part of a team working toward the cure of blood disorders."

SENIOR TALENT

Sandi Tichy has been involved in music for all of her twelve years at Orangewood. She began singing in public at age six. In elementary she spent two years as a choir member and soloist and began what was to become eight years of studying piano.

Sandi's musical talent blossomed into full flower in academy. She studied composition for a year and subsequently composed an original religious musical and over fifty songs, including the Senior class song, "Forever."

She has been studying voice for four years, was a member of the academy choir for two years, and has been playing the piano and singing in various churches for several years.

One of Sandi's more noteworthy accomplishments is her membership in "Word for Word," a professional music group. In 1982 the group recorded an album for Chapel Records.

TWELVE YEAR VETS

To the ordinary student, school is a matter of constant change and adjustments.

Only a special type of person can accept the challenge of being at Orangewood for their entire elementary and high school education. Determination, loyalty, strength, boldness, and sheer courage fall short of describing the attributes of these individuals who have experienced this adventure.

This is a tribute to these thrill seekers who have completed this feat and have been crowned with the coveted title ordinary students can only dream of obtaining: Orangewood Academy Twelve Year Veteran.

Dear Harold,

Congratulations on your graduation and what else can we say to a son like you but GREAT!

We are very proud of you and we thank the Lord that He has given us the privilege of seeing you reach this point in your education.

May the Lord continue His work of perfection in you and may your goal always be eternity. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Janett, and Osmar

Dear Caryn

Congratulations!

We are most proud of you; you have been our dream come true. We know you will be a success in the career you pursue. Always remember to keep your eyes on the Heavenly Father and know you are so loved.

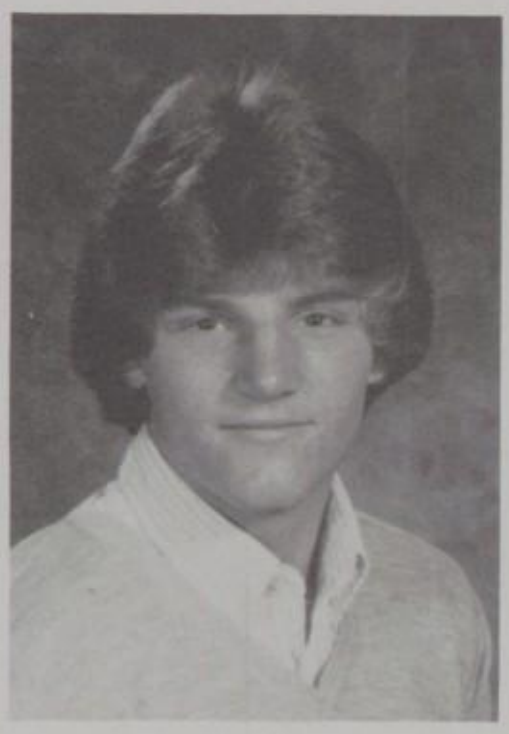
Congratulations Rob



The twelve years of school have passed us one by one; Some were good and some were very trying, son. But through it all we held it together - even in the stormiest weather. Now that your "18" and common sense has "set in", we love you and wish you the best this world has to offer you from here on in.

Much Love & God Bless You,

Mom & Dad
Ron and Shawn
& "Buffy" too

My dear daughter Jackie,

I am happy and proud that you are graduating after twelve years at Orangewood. Your life will have many changes and you will look back, and realize, your years in school were really the "Good Old Days." And always remember trust in God, and He will never fail you.

Love you always,
Mom

Dear Carlos,

While writing this today, there is so much to look back on and so many different feelings inside me. There is a lot I'll remember and will cherish always. It seems like such a long time ago since I first met you. A lot has happened since then. I am awfully thankful for the friendship you and I have shared. I wish you nothing but the best for your coming year. I honestly hope in the future you will find all the happiness you so deserve. Most of all, I wish you love. I am so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. You are a beautiful human being, Carlos Bendrell!

Congratulations to you.

I love you,
Joni Versteeg

Congratulations To BETH BELL

Beth, we are very proud of you. Graduating from Orangwood Academy is a fine achievement. You have brought us much happiness over the years and your transition from child to adult has been a wonderful adventure. May God bless you and lead you in all that you do. Our prayers are with you always!

We love you, Beth!

Mom, Dad, and Dave, Alex (Ruff!)

Congratulations VALERIE

We are very happy for you. From child to young adult you have had some hardships. Overcoming them has been difficult, but with prayer you've managed to pull through. You have grown to be a very intelligent and beautiful person. Soon you will be on your own, facing life and its many challenges. We hope that you continue to stay with Christ as you progress. Turn to Him for your every need.

We love you so much,
Mom, Pops, Caesar, and John

Debbie Kawaguchi
and the Class of '83

In the month of September
Awaiting the newest member
Were two little tykes
Who by the likes
Scrubbed their faces clean
So as to be seen
Greeting their little sister
With hardly a whisper
And eyes so bright
In the daylight.

The two little tykes became three little siblings,
Who shared their adventures through childhood dribblings
From preschool came in succession--measles, chickenpox and mumps, Then hiking, camping, swimming, fishing, rafting, surfing, sailing and skiing over humps,
Including seemingly agonizing endless hours of piano practice
Which seemed to please mother's axis.
The constant checks on homework and grades abounded endlessly
Through the years--not one of the three escaped accountability!

As time passed on, one by one, the little tykes began to leave the nest,
Now the littlest one is no longer a follower nor a pest,
She is now ready to make decisions about her future in her own right.
The rulers of the nest have taken on a new perspective as they set their sight
To the future. Their littlest tyke has grown
Into a charming young lady and let it be known
That with her sister and brother, we all love her and wish for her
Happiness and success to occur.

Lovingly,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations to Orangewood Academy for returning to us a mature young man.

Congratulations to the Faculty for its dedication and caring for our son.

Congratulations to the Class of 1983 for the unending support and frienship you've given Carlos during the last 12 years.

Congratulations to the dedicated Yearbook Staff, and for the opportunity to serve and gain experience that will help Carlos in his career.

Congratulations to our son and brother for a job well done. We are very proud of your accomplishments, and confident that you are going to make the right decisions in your future endeavors.

We Thank God because all these have been accomplished with His approval.

We all love, you, Carlos.

TO LESLIE —

When a jewel-adorned Roman lady asked Cornelia where her jewels were, she replied, "These are my jewels," pointing to her two small sons.

Leslie, you are our jewel —
— a diamond of sparkling humor —
— a pearl of a soft, glowing disposition —
— a deep red ruby for the depth of friends' trust —

— a sapphire for your clear sense of duty and responsibility —
— an emerald for the brightness of your personality —

For these qualities and coutless others, we love you and share in the joy of your accomplishments now and always.

Patience

Patience is a man's greatest virtue,
or so the saying goes,
A gymnast must have said it,
for a gymnast surely knows,
that in this funny sport of ours,
discouragement runs high,
and at times the very best will find,
this virtues past them by.
When hands are ripped and throbbing
and every muscle's sore,
can a gymnast still have patience,
and limp on back for more?
When you've lost old moves you used to do,
and progress seems so slow,
can you have faith in better days,
and not feel sad and low?
Can you admit you're frightend,
yet not give into fear,
Can you conquer pain, frustration,
and sometimes even tears?
When someone else does something,
you've tried so hard to do,
Can you really feel glad for him,
and not just pity you?
When success seems far away,
and efforts all in vain,
can you force yourself to wear a smile,
and disregard the pain?
If despite the tribulations,
you can say "I won't give in",
Maybe someday you'll discover,
it's now your turn to win.

Dearest Karen,

Children are very special people to their parents and their brothers and sisters. For eighteen years you have proven to be a unique, loving, fun, high spirited person. During times of stress your sensitive, caring and thoughtful qualities were very obvious.

Even though we tell you often how much we love you — you will never know how much or how deep that love really is until you have your own children.

Thank you for being the wonderful daughter you are, for the joy and laughter that fills our home because of you.

Congratulations and may your future bring you as much as happiness as you have brought us.

Lovingly,
Mom, Dad, and Ken

Dear Dave

Congratulations!! We're proud of you. It's been a joy watching your growth into manhood.

Dear Rabsy;

How are you doing kid? I hope you're doing good, you look like it because you look soooo happy. I'm glad I wanted to thank you for all the love and support you gave me during the Christmas season. I sincerely appreciated the advice you gave me because it was excellent. I wish we were closer but I guess I understand it the way it has to be. I have enjoyed our little "church socials" when we ripped apart the tithe envelopes during church and we made so much noise! It's too bad we don't have to talk anymore but since I moved it's hard to find the time anymore to call you! Don't worry about getting fat because if you got any skinnier you'd blow away in the wind. I know you'll get a sexy tan and you'd keep your gorgeous shape throughout the summer!. See ya later,

Aloha,
Geoff

Dear Jeanette,
Thanks for keeping me out of the discipline committee meetings that I so often attended in years past, compliments of your brother. You have carried on the Jonathan Jacobs tradition every so discreetly.
Now as you turn another corner in your development, turn towards the challenges of meeting several goals and as you and your lifetime friends, Leslie, Karen, Gumby, and his little friend Pokey too, leave home for college, I wish you success in all you do.
You are truly a joy and I love you,
Mom

Hi Rabsy!
Can you believe it? This year is almost over & we'll be Seniors! This year sure has gone by fast! It seems like just yesterday that we were all in choir together. I don't even know how or why I was in it! I mean I couldn't sing (& still can't) - oh well. I hope you had a great year this year & have a Super Duper Summer! Don't get too dark!! See ya next year!

Love,
'84'
Julie Franklin

Dear Rabsy,
I'm really enjoyed being on ASB with you second semester. Remember the carnations and Del Taco? This year was really fun. I hope you had a good year too. It's hard to believe that we will be seniors now but what a relief!! only one more year! Have a good summer
Love,
Hector S.

Dear Rabsy,
I hope you don't get mad at me for writing on this page well so much for this, and this year was fun. You know rabsy this year was too, and I bet next year will be better because we will be "Big" Seniors I bet your excited if your not Iam. you know what rabsy finally I get to be the "boss" in the P.A. so treats another thing I have to worry next year and during vacations, but I like it so I think its going to be fun if you don't know who the next P.A. (fool) boy is, its Bernard Park I think we likes to work in the P.A. so well do a good job write more because I have out of spaces, see ya next year.

Dear Rabsy,
I'm glad that you were in ASD this year cuz you've done a good job. Also good luck as sec. of our Senior Class. You'll do a good job taking minutes + stuff. I hope that you had a good year & I hope that you'll have a really good summer & I'll see you next year.
Love,
Debbi

Dear Rabsy,
I'am sure glad that were friends, I am also happy that school is over I'am so sick of it, will have a fun summer see you in sept. stay sweat & cute
Love
Helen Olan

Dear Rabsy,
I want to tell you that your my favorite chapel Seat neighbor. You always have a smiling face and say to me is the day. Something nice to me, having you next to me is a good way to start off the day. I wish I had the opportunity to know you better - but the fun things we will miss at school. I will always remember you & I hope you have a great summer and don't get to burned. P.S don't be to lonely with me in chapel
Love again.

Dear Rabsy,
I'm sorry we weren't more close. I would have liked to be friends with you; you seem to have a great personality & a great sense of humor. I hope you have a great summer & I hope to see you next year.
Love,
Lee

Dear Rabsy; Hey sweetie I never really even talk to you But year's in past I have seen that your a real sweet heart, maybe one day in time we may all become closer friends. It seem's to me you have had a real busy year, you've been in a sorts of activities, and you do a real good Job (keep up the good work) Rabsy have a real Good summer and stay sweet keep up all your good thing's and hope fully we may become closer freinds next year keep all your friends in line and, I would also like to thank you dearly for helping me in Jr. Class buisness, Thanks again

Love you Always

PS. Keep in touch.

Dear Rabsy I wonder what the future will hold for you and I. I'll be a senior next year and you'll be a junior. Boy I can't wait. Have a great summer. Love ya, Debbie

DEAR RABSY —

WHAT BUSINESS DO I HAVE SIGNING YOUR YEARBOOK EXCEPT FOR THE FACT THAT YEARBOOKS ARE RECORDS OF MEMORIES. SO . . . WITH THAT I'M GOING TO SHARE WITH YOU MY MEMORIES OF YOU DURING THIS SHORT PERIOD OF TIME THAT I HAVE KNOWN YOU!

- MEMORIES OF MESSY ATTEMPTS AT SAYING YOUR NAME —
- MEMORIES OF YOUR CAPTIVATING AND WARM SMILE —
- MEMORIES OF EATING PIZZA AND SHARING "CLEAN", WHOLESOME, JOKES —
- MEMORIES OF SEEING YOU INTERACT WITH OTHERS AND SEEING THE IMPACT YOU HAVE ON THEIR LIVES (ASK THE OTHER MATTHEW (THE "GEL"))

I LOOK FORWARD RABSY TO MANY MORE MEMORIES THAT INCLUDE YOU. . . ESPECIALLY AS I SEE HOW YOU FIT INTO GOD'S GREAT PLAN FOR OUR YOUTH.

Dear Robby, I hope that your year has gone as fast as mine. It's been a pretty good year, I just can't believe that we're going to be seniors next year. You're really a good athlete, and I'm glad I got to know you better this year. You have a really good capability in athletics, and I wish that we had become friends, because you're really nice. Have a good summer and don't let the best part go by too fast. And above all — even think of going on a diet, I will personally strangle you. You would be one of the skinniest girls around, if you would be submerged with all the bones, slimness! You would be a rattling abomination too much with all the bones, and any sudden movement would keep up the cheerful attitude, and there at O.A. (Don't mess you down. And if you don't let no one get you need someone to talk too, or play tennis, don't forget me.

P.S. We better think of something good to do on the last day of school, and give this place something to remember!

Rabsy,
Its been a great year w/ you, you are a really neat person. Congrats! You did a great job in ASB. Have a great summer can't wait to see you again next year I'll miss you during the summer.

Love Always,

Krista

Dear Rabsy,
You're a real sweetheart. It's a good thing you're not like other people who decides by their friends opinions. Well you know, I won't say it's been a great year cause I had a great time. Have a great summer and I hope I see you next year. Love Nada

P.S. You really do!)

PANA,
I Hope this year has gone by real good For you. (Its gone pretty good for me). I really haven't talked to YOU to much this year, I hope we can have some more ~~classes~~ classess next year. stay sweet and loving, and Keep getting good grades. I hope you have a rad sommer and don't get burNed. stay sweet, and I'll see ya next year.

Dear Rabsy,

I'm really glad we've gotten to know each other better this year. We've had so many good times together. And alot of long talks. Thanks for always listening when I needed to talk so badly. Thanks too for lending support to when I was going through the troubles with F.C., U.S. + M.D. It was really hard for me + I'm glad you were one of the people that helped me ~~like~~ through. Thanks again for everything But mostly for just being you.

Keep Smiling" + I'll see ya next year.

GOLDEN HORIZON

Rain was a symbol to the yearbook staff from the very beginning. In a real physical sense rain has had quite an impact on us all. Beach Day was rained out and during a subsequent rainstorm the campus played host to an unwelcome guest — an arctic tornado!

In a different way — felt no less by the staff — rain became a symbol of the pressures involved in putting out a yearbook. The tornado damage was not the only hardship we faced, yet face them we did. Our trust in God and in each other sheltered us from the storm.

We held out to the end, satisfied with a job well done, and triumphant at having survived — together.

LOOKING BACK

As we look back over the past year, we see the faces of those who made it special. It is a time for reminiscing, for recalling old times — good and bad, and also for looking forward. Graduates will meet fresh challenges. New faces will replace those who leave. For those who remain, life will go on.

Another year is past; one more milestone in all of our lives. It is both an ending and a beginning, a time for reflecting and moving on.

Dear Rabsy,
I hope that your year has gone well for you. Alot has happened and it is too bad that you and Jon couldn't work things out. Well, There's always next year. You really made a great A.S.B. secretary and we did get alot done. Next year we should work well together in class office. By the way, you give great back rubs!! Hope that you have a fantastic summer and maybe we can all get together sometime. If not, I'll see you next year as a SENIOR!

Love,
Jiff H.

Dear Rabsy,
I'm really sorry it didn't work out too good. I guess things just didn't work exactly the way I wanted. But I'll get over it just as I'm sure you will. I wish we could've had more times together but I guess it just wasn't meant to be. Oh well, it's their loss. Have a great summer.

Rabsy, Its incredible how fast this year has gone by. I can still remember going to all different stores to buy ASB things. I'm glad we survived through all the madness. I really think we had a great ASB, even if we had to stand all period & had unlimited cuts & let's the next year did get burned out when we were in chair and I can remember laughing at Mr. Woodso. I'm real glad we became better friends & I wish you luck with Jon. He's a super sweet guy and you deserve one another. Have fun as class officer next year. Maybe we'll see you this summer. Take care

Dearest Rabsy

You know this year has gone by very fast. And through this fast school year I am very very glad that I got to meet you this year. It's been quit a long time since we last played bad mitton together I had alot of fun playing with you even pickle ball was fun. Rabsy you are a real neat person I will never forget you at all. Well I just hope to see you over the summer. I Hope you have a great one to o.k. May your dreams be fulfilled.

Dear Ravsy,
I'm sure glad

Dear Rabsy,
I am glad I met you this year and got to go on the choir tour with you. I hope you don't think I'm an idiot even though I act like one sometimes. You are probably one of the nicest girls here. I hope you have a good summer vacation; I may invite a bunch of people over for a beach party. Love, Richard Jensen

Dear Rabsy,
I really hope you had a good year. It seems this year was your year for some problems. Last year was mine. You really did a good job as A.S.B secretary. I'm sure it kept you pretty busy this year. Next year it'll probably be a better year though. You'll be a big Senior. I'm sure you're excited about that. Time really goes fast. Pretty soon you'll be graduating, but I hope we could still keep in touch. Maybe soon I'll start going to G.G. church, but I'm not sure. Maybe to the church that Veda goes to. I'm really glad I finally found a true friend. Remember last year the friends I had. (L.V., P.S., S.R.)! You + Veda are probably the best friends I have at O.A.

Friends always,
Martha G.

P.S. Cant wait to see your teeth after your braces come off.

because you are such a nice person. It's going to be strange next year knowing that we are going to graduate and leave school. Hope you enjoy your summer. Don't get to tan. Love, Judy
